

5 ways for CAC to Support ACS CAN's work on Childhood Cancer

1. Post patient/survivor stories, campus event pics, and links to the childhood cancer petition, on your personal Facebook, Twitter and Instagram accounts and ask other CAC volunteers to do the same
2. Work with local ACS CAN staff to...
 - a. Visit a lawmaker's office and deliver petitions
 - b. Coordinate a phone call day in to a lawmaker's offices
 - c. Email lawmakers and their staff asking them to take action on our legislation
 - d. Create an online and/or paper story bank of childhood cancer stories from your campus and community to share with a lawmaker
3. While tabling on campus to promote your CAC chapter ask students and faculty to sign the childhood cancer petition
4. Hand out Lap top stickers to students to raise awareness about the campaign
5. Start an ACS CAN membership drive with a set recruitment goal.

Support The Childhood Cancer

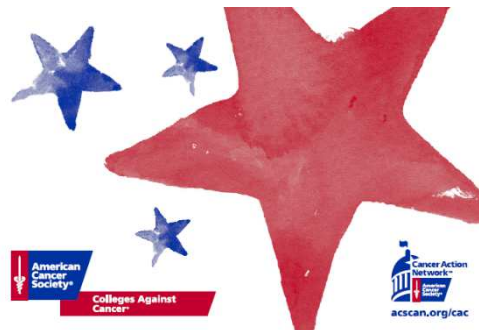

STAR Act of 2017

I am a student, but more importantly, I am part of a generation committed to ending cancer. As my elected official, you have the power to make a difference and I'm asking for your help! Please pass The Childhood Cancer STAR Act of 2017 because my future depends not just on my choices - but also on yours.
