

Medicaid covers US Virginia

Virginia Medicaid helps people with cancer

Cancer patients and survivors — our family, friends, neighbors and co-workers — rely on Medicaid.

Nearly 1 million Virginians are covered by Medicaid

Over 12,000 Virginians with cancer relied on Medicaid coverage 2007-2015

Nearly 70% of Virginia Medicaid enrollees with cancer are women

Over 30% of Virginia Medicaid enrollees with cancer are men

Demographics of Virginia Medicaid enrollees with cancer

* percentages do not total 100% due to rounding

Medicaid enrollees with a cancer diagnosis are a cross-section of Virginians

- ★ 25% have a high school diploma or GED
- ★ 12% have completed a bachelors or associates degree
- ★ 1 in 12 have served in the armed forces
- ★ 1 in 8 worked in the last 12 months

Analysis provided to ACS CAN by Avalere Health. Medicaid Covers US: Profiles of Medicaid Enrollees with Cancer. Analysis performed March 2019. Analysis performed from data collected from Medicaid enrollees over the age of 15.