Idaho Supports Medicaid: In Our Words Premiere Film Screening

Thank you for joining us.

Idaho Supports Medicaid: In Our Words is a new short film from ACS CAN that explores how Medicaid Expansion is working and saving lives for over 90,000 Idahoans.

After Idahoans decisively supported Medicaid expansion, the program was implemented in 2020 just before the start of the COVID-19 pandemic and provided Idahoans the peace of mind that comes with knowing you can see a doctor when you need one. Without expansion, costs to caring for the uninsured would have fallen to the counties, state, and providers.

Meet the film's storytellers:

- Dr. David Johnson: Dr. Johnson is the medical director of the Kootenai Health Gastroenterology and Endoscopy Group in Coeur d'Alene.
- Nancy Wahtomy: Nancy is the Patient Navigator for the Shoshone Bannock Tribal Health Clinic at Fort Hall, ID and works primarily with cancer patients.
- Patrick Murillo: Patrick is a member of the Shoshone Bannock tribe and a two-time prostate cancer survivor and currently lives in Pocatello.
- John Barnes: John is a Boise resident who works part-time and attends the College of Western Idaho.
