

Stories of Young Adult Survivorship

Register today!
Monday, June 3, 2024
5:00 PM PT / 8:00 PM ET

Join for a discussion on adolescent and young adult (AYA) cancer survivorship, and the challenges faced by this group, including social and emotional issues, implications for school or work, financial stress, fertility questions, and more. Life after cancer is important to understand, as cancer journeys do not end when treatment ends.
