

The Nancy Gardner Sewell Medicare Multi-Cancer Early Detection Act (H.R. 842/S. 339)

67 Legislative Cosponsors in the U.S. Senate

Multi-Cancer Early Detection Tests (MCEDs) are simple blood tests that can screen for many types of cancer at once. This legislation would create a pathway for Medicare to cover these new groundbreaking tests once FDA-approved and shown to have clinical benefit.

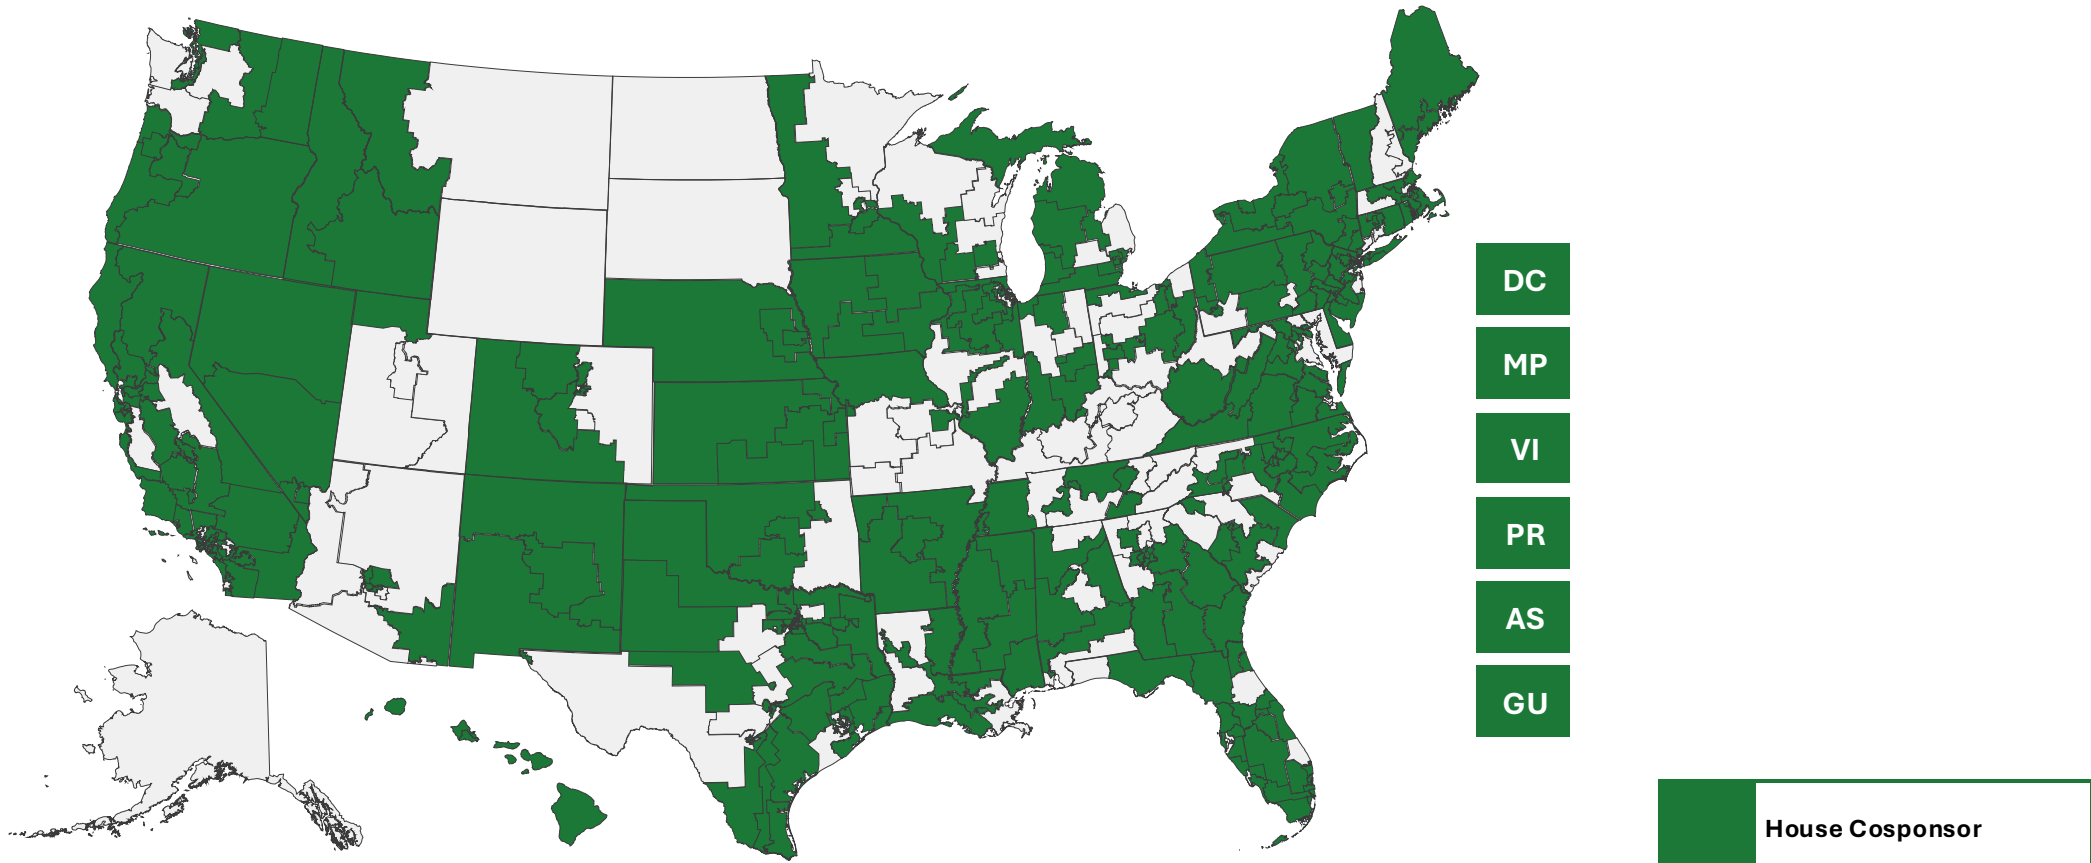

*map current as of 10/27/25

Detection Act (H.R. 842/S. 339)

325 Legislative Cosponsors in the U.S. House of Representatives

Multi-Cancer Early Detection Tests (MCEDs) are simple blood tests that can screen for many types of cancer at once. This legislation would create a pathway for Medicare to cover these new groundbreaking tests once FDA-approved and shown to have clinical benefit.

map current as of 10/27/25*